Privacy Collection Notice

The Queensland Racing Integrity Commission ('QRIC') collects your personal information when you submit this form for the purpose of recording the death of the greyhound as required under GAR 22(1)(c) and to ensure that accurate records are kept to ensure the traceability of greyhounds. The personal information collected on this form includes your name, registration number, phone number, address, and signature. This information is necessary to facilitate the tracing of greyhounds from birth to retirement or death. If your information is transferred outside Australia, it will be done so in compliance with the legal protections afforded under the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) ('IP Act'). If you do not provide the required personal information collected via this form, it may limit QRIC's ability to ensure that accurate records are kept to trace greyhounds during their lifecycle. Your personal information will be handled in accordance with the IP Act. You can gain access to and request that corrections be made to information held about you by QRIC. If you are concerned about a possible interference with your privacy, please contact QRIC's Privacy Officer by email at PrivacyOfficer@qric.qld.gov.au or by post addressed to the Privacy Officer at PO Box 650 Hamilton Central 4007. By submitting this form, you consent to the use and disclosure of my personal information for the purpose identified in the privacy collection notice.
