Designs and regulations

All horses that reside in Queensland are required to display colours which are registered with the Queensland Racing Integrity Commission (QRIC).

All designs / patterns are subject to approval by QRIC.

The use of numerals, initials, letters, words, offensive motifs and the use of commercial property (registered logos, trademarks) are not permitted.

In general, all colours must be capable of being distinguished by judges and stewards during a race and, therefore, symbols, motifs, pictures, stencils, caricatures and similar images that do not satisfy this requirement will not be approved.

Colours disallowed in Queensland but subsequently registered in another state for a Queensland trained and raced horse will not be permitted to be used in Queensland.

Registered brands, personal or business logos may be considered on an individual basis.

Colours must be identical when viewed from back and front.

Racing colours may be registered by up to six nominators each of whom shall have equal rights to the use of the racing colours provided that they all have unequivocal agreement to these rights.

The following dimensions shall be used as a guide:

- Hoops, Stripes, V's and braces must not be less than 75mm wide.
- Multiple spots, stars, diamonds, checks, crossed or single sashes and armbands must not be less than 100mm.
- Bands & single stripe must not be less than 125mm.
- Single diamond, star, spot, horseshoe, lightning bolt must be no less than 280mm depth x 230mm width.
- Single Maltese cross, shamrock, cross or Lorraine should be not less than 280mm x 280mm
- Other approved motifs \ shapes should use the above sizes as a guide.
