Toowoomba Trainer Ben Currie notified of new prohibited substance inquiry

Queensland Racing Integrity Commission Stewards have today advised legal representatives for Toowoomba Trainer Ben Currie that prohibited substances have been detected in samples taken from three horses he trains.

The alleged breaches relate to Wicked Trilogy that raced on 2 December 2017 at Kilcoy, Shikira that raced on 28 January 2018 at Toowoomba and Karaharaga that raced on 6 July 2018 at Rockhampton.

The Stewards Inquiry will commence on Monday 14 January 2019.

These matters are separate to any previous charges against Mr Currie.
