Stewards Report: Mr John Wallace (Trainer)

Date: 6 November 2020

Panel: P. Gillard, P. Chadwick, A. Turner

Queensland Racing Integrity Commission (QRIC) Stewards today concluded an inquiry into the reason trainer Mr J. Wallace allowed a person to ride trackwork at the Gold Coast Turf Club between 17 February 2020 and 9 March 2020, when not the holder of the appropriate license to do so. After considering all submissions Mr Wallace pleaded guilty to a charge under;

LR.43. Unlicensed person not to be employed

Unless with the permission of the Principal Racing Authority a Trainer shall not employ an unlicensed person or allow an unlicensed person to work in or about any training establishment in any role involving the training working or custody or management of any racehorse trained, owned or leased by him.

The specifics of the charge being:

Between 17 February 2020 to 9 March 2020, Mr Wallace allowed an unlicensed person, being Mr Dylan Dean, to work in or about a training establishment in a role involving the training and working of a racehorse trained by himself, in that he allowed Mr Dean to undertake trackwork riding at the Gold Coast Turf Club. Mr Wallace was fined the sum of $200.

Mr Wallace was made aware of his right to an appeal against the findings of the Stewards.
