

Stewards' Report

Stewards Report: Dale Whyte

Date: 28 July 2022

Panel: B Cooke, C Allison, S Larkins

Queensland Racing Integrity Commission (QRIC) Stewards today concluded an inquiry into the alleged race day treatment of Awesome Power prior to the Mackay race meeting on Thursday 28 April 2022.

After taking into consideration the evidence tendered by Mr Whyte, Stewards issued a charge under the terms of AR 249(1)(a) which reads:

AR 249 Administration of medication on race day

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions set out in Schedule 1, Part 2, Division 2, a person must not, without the permission of the Stewards:

(a) administer; or any medication to a horse at any time on race day prior to the commencement of a race in which the horse is engaged to race.

The specifics of the charge being -

That Mr Dale Whyte, as the licensed trainer, did administer a medication to Awesome Power, namely Swell Down, prior to its engagement at the Mackay Turf Club race meeting on Thursday 28 April 2022.

Mr Whyte pleaded guilty to the charge.

In determining penalty stewards took into consideration the following:

- Mr Whyte's guilty plea
- Mr Whyte's good record and forthright evidence.
- The objective seriousness of the conduct
- The paramount importance of maintaining the integrity of Thoroughbred Racing and ensuring a level playing field for all participants
- Specific and general deterrence principles

- Taking into consideration Local Rule 117B(c) and the circumstances of the case, stewards were of the opinion that special circumstances exist in this case.

Taking into consideration the above, stewards issued Mr Whyte with a $1000 fine.

Mr Whyte was advised of his right to an internal review.