

Stewards' Report

Date:	Monday, 10 July 2023
Panel:	Mr R Jackson (Chairperson), Ms N Thorneycroft, Ms A McLennan
Person:	Mr Jason Haim
Rule:	GAR 169(5)(b)
Disciplinary Action:	Pending the decision or outcome of an inquiry, no greyhounds owned or trained by Mr Jason Haim are permitted to compete in or be nominated for an Event.

Following an unsatisfactory kennel inspection on 1 July 2023, Stewards issued a direction to Mr Haim in relation to non-compliance with the Controlling Bodies Permanent Kennelling and Housing of Greyhounds Minimum Standard Requirements. On the 10 July 2023 Stewards conducted a no notice inspection of Mr Haim kennels and observed that the direction was not complied with in its entirety. The Queensland Racing Integrity Commission Stewards considered the evidence currently before them and directed that no greyhound owned or trained by Mr Jason Haim is to compete in or be nominated for an event pending the finalisation of the inquiry into the matter pursuant to Greyhounds Australasia Rule 169(5)(b).

For clarity, Greyhounds Australasia Rule 169(5)(b) provides:

Pending the decision or outcome of an inquiry or other disciplinary process, a Controlling Body or the Stewards may direct that:

(b) if the inquiry or other disciplinary process directly or indirectly involves or is connected with an owner or trainer, that no greyhound owned by the owner or trained by the trainer is permitted to compete in or be nominated for an Event;

Mr Haim was advised of his right to appeal.
